

Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police presents the “Excellence in Leadership” Award

Sponsored by

Rotman School of Management
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

This award is presented in recognition of the accomplishments of a member of a police service who consistently demonstrates outstanding engagement and achievement within their organization and their community in terms of leadership.

Awarded annually by the Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police and sponsored by Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto, the Award for Excellence in Leadership will be presented to of a member of a police service who demonstrates leadership with their police service organization and community.

The awards will be presented at the OACP’s Awards & Life Member luncheon which will take place on Tuesday, June 12, 2018 at the Deerhurst Resort. The organization chosen as the winner of this awards will receive an engraved plaque to commemorate their achievement. The names of the award-winning organization will be permanently displayed with pride at the Ontario Police College.

Note: Award information is also posted on the OACP web site at www.oacp.ca

Appendix A: How to Submit a Nomination

Appendix B: Rules

Appendix A: How to Submit a Nomination

All nominations for the “Excellence in Leadership” award must be submitted in an electronic format suitable for distribution by email. Hard copy submissions will not be accepted.

Nominations may be submitted either:

- a) Via email to: mmascarin@oacp.ca
- b) By sending a CD via standard post to:
“Innovation Information Technology”
c/o The Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police
40 College Street, Suite 605
Toronto, ON M5G 2J3

Submissions must be received no later than Tuesday, March 6, 2018.

All submissions for the “Excellence in Leadership” award must include:

- a title page
- a nomination report (document not to exceed five (5) pages)

The Title Page must include the following information:

- The nominated agency’s name, the agency’s full address and main phone number;
- The names, ranks, and/or positions of the employees who were the driving force behind the initiative;
- The name, rank, email and phone number of the individual preparing the nomination; and
- The statement “This nomination is supported and endorsed by (name of the originating agency’s Chief of Police/Commissioner or designate).”

Appendix B: Rules

1. All applications must be endorsed by the submitting organization's Commissioner, Chief of Police or designate.
2. Only one nomination per organization will be accepted.
3. All nominations must be received on or before, Tuesday, March 6, 2018
4. Nominations must be submitted in an electronic format suitable for transmission via email.
5. All materials and information submitted as part of the nomination will become the property of the Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police and will not be returned.
6. One winning entry will be selected in each sub-category. Up to two other entries will be selected in each category to receive "Certificates of Merit".
7. Only members of Ontario police services and the Ontario Provincial Police may be considered for this award.
8. Although somewhat flexible, the bulk of the activities associated with the work/initiative should have occurred during the year prior to the submission deadline date. It is realized that some initiatives take longer than one year to create, implement, and deliver a measurable impact. Nomination reports should discuss the timing of the initiative, and why it has been submitted for consideration at this time.
9. The Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police reserves the right to utilize any portion of any award submission for purposes of publication.