(Toronto, ON) – Ontario's police leaders are proud to announce the winners of three annual Provincial traffic safety awards to be presented at the OACP's 2018 Annual Meeting taking place June 10-13 in Huntsville, ON:

- Sergeant John Kiss of the Ottawa Police Service will be honoured with the OACP Traffic Safety Award of Excellent;
- Constable Graham Williamson of the Ontario Provincial Police will be honoured with the OACP Lifetime Achievement in Traffic Safety; and
- The Ontario Provincial Police's Commercial Motor Vehicle Collision Mitigation Strategy will be honoured as the Traffic Safety of the Year.

"Ontario's roadways are among the safest in the world because of the hard work and dedication of police officers like Sergeant Kiss and Constable Williamson and innovative traffic safety initiatives like the OPP's strategy to address commercial motor vehicle collisions," said OACP President Chief Bryan Larkin. "We are proud of these police officers and all police personnel who contribute to safety on all our highways and roads."

The Traffic Safety – Award of Excellence recognizes a serving individual who has clearly devoted part of their career to furthering traffic safety initiatives, while the Lifetime Achievement in Traffic Safety is presented to a serving individual who has clearly devoted themselves and their policing efforts to furthering traffic safety initiatives, and the Traffic Safety Initiative of the Year Award is presented to the police organization creating, developing and implementing Ontario's most successful traffic safety program during the past year.
