

Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police

presents the

“Community Safety and Crime Prevention Award”

Sponsored by

This award is presented in recognition of the accomplishments of police agencies and their community partners working together to improve community safety and well-being. Award winners will demonstrate their commitment to, and understanding of, Ontario’s Mobilization & Engagement Model of Community Policing and will identify how they have collaborated with their community to address an area of concern or situation of elevated risk within the community. The subject project need not be complete, nor does it have to have been initiated with this model. The submission should, however, demonstrate how the project fits within the framework of the model and enhances community safety and well-being

The OACP Awards will be handed out on Monday, June 15, 2020 at the Queen’s Landing, Niagara-on-the-Lake.
