

Saugeen Shores Police Service

Chief Kevin Zettel
1240 MacKenzie Road
Saugeen Shores, Ontario
N0H 2C0

Tel: (519) 832-2500
Admin: (519) 832-9200
Fax: (519) 389-4257

February 2025

Experienced Police Constable & Experienced Special Constable

Saugeen Shores is a growing community located on the Lake Huron coastline in Bruce County and covers 170 square kilometers. Saugeen Shores is the amalgamated municipalities of Port Elgin, Saugeen Township and Southampton.

The Saugeen Shores Police Service is accepting applications from candidates who are currently serving as Police Officers and Special Constable.

If you are an experienced Police Officer:

The candidate must have completed a period of probation pursuant to section 84 of the Community Safety and Policing Act.

Applicants will be evaluated on the following criteria:

1. Detailed covering letter and Resume
2. Performance evaluations over the last 2 years
3. Commendation letters
4. List of volunteer work
5. Reference letters; list of work-related references

If you are an experienced Special Constable:

The candidate must be a designated Special Constable pursuant to Section 92 of the Community Safety and Policing Act.

Applicants will be evaluated on the following criteria:

1. Detailed covering letter and Resume
2. Performance evaluations over the last 2 years
3. Commendation letters
4. List of volunteer work
5. Reference letters; list of work-related references

Interested applicants are encouraged to submit your application in person or by mail to the Saugeen Shores Police Service:

Attention Kevin Zettel – Chief of Police
Saugeen Shores Police Service
1240 MacKenzie Road; P.O Box 1269
Port Elgin ON
N0H2C0

*The starting salary will be as listed in the Collective Agreement, commensurate with the qualifications and experience of the successful candidate.